

Maureen Knight interviews David Dean and his daughter Carol Hultmark on 11 August 2015 on the occasion of planting a Philadelphus Belle Etoile and visiting the bench given in memory of Peggy Dean

early musical experiences

piano Blue Danube

jumped to accompanying his daughter with violin sonatas

Brahms "I want my baby" (Carol – that's Schumann) folk & early involvement at HM

1972-3 hooked at Chippenham festival

Carol – how her parents got really involved and Peggy started calling, involvement with Chippenham and going to Halsway around 35 years ago

D -Terry Willets, David Hudson Peggy said he galumphed

DH said daft things "think horizontally or vertically?"

(D Distracted by seeing the YURT followed by explanation by M & C)

rooms at Halsway

Talked about bench and why they're at HM today cats, snowdrops and other HM flowers planting the Philadelphus Belle Etoile today

special music

Purcell dances C – Melksham group

changes to HM longroom

Terry Willett

M redcoration in memory of Coral Chiles husband (check spelling)

70 birthday Surprise Party for Peggy 1999

C talking about how they organised it

Terrible lies granddaughter Emily- bassoonist, walky talkies aunt Lesley called dances, Emily sang, steam train and tarantulas play or dance?

Terry Willet "goes to quack by banger!"

"yo 2 better than the band ye know"

Carol =viola player with philharmonic until injured, Peggy travelled round world with them including Japan

Winter Solstice dance by Wendy Crouch tune by David Dean

David's best story about Halsway sings tune of William of Orange-dutch group all stood up in lounge!

David's love of languages

Morse code in Swedish for " Carol, have you heard all this before in Morse?"

David sang Winter Solstice ( photocopy included)

In memory of Peggy Dean who loved this place

