HALSWAY MANOR

National Centre for Folk Arts

July - December 2024

01984 618274 | www.halswaymanor.org.uk

Halsway Manor is a charity that promotes and supports the practice of traditional folk arts. This includes folk dance, music, song, folklore, storytelling, arts and crafts. It is the only residential centre in the world concentrating on the varied folk heritage of England.

Halsway Manor has inspired thousands of people to discover and explore all facets of the folk arts through its year-round residential and outreach activities. Halsway's mission is to enrich lives through inspirational experiences, as it has been doing for over 50 years – it attracts expert tutors from across the globe, offering a broad programme that assists amateur exploration, professional development, the creation of new work, and stewardship of its heritage. Visitors also cherish the opportunity to make new friends and connections from all over the world, and the community of folk artists that Halsway attracts.

Halsway Manor is a truly unique organisation which employs over 300 professional folk artists every year, works with hundreds of young people through its Young Folk programme and in school settings, and provides a folk education programme for all ages that is second to none.

Nature and Landscape

In addition to our courses focusing on music and dance, we also offer opportunities throughout the year to get out into the beautiful Somerset countryside. Halsway Manor, situated in the heart of the Quantock Hills National Landscape, is the perfect base for exploring nature and discovering this unique area of the country.

Summer Walking Week

Monday 8 – Friday 12 July

Halsway Manor is situated in the heart of the Quantock Hills National Landscape, with direct footpath access to open moorland and views to the Brendon Hills and Exmoor and endless opportunities for varied walking in stunning, unspoiled landscapes. You'll have the choice of three walks of differing lengths each day.

For more information, see page 6.

Coleridge Way Walking Week

Monday 9 – Friday 13 September

This walking holiday includes three full days of walking, covering the Western half of the Coleridge way (Wheddon Cross to Lynmouth) led by local guide and enthusiast Roger Phipps. Shorter walks with Nan Ward will be on offer each day so you can choose the best route for you.

For more information, see page 11.

Late Summer Butterflies and Moths

Monday 9 – Friday 13 September

World-renowned butterfly and moth expert and author David Brown returns to lead a late-Summer week of field trips, workshops and lectures focusing on the rare and interesting late-summer butterflies and moths of Somerset.

For more information, see page 11.

Enjoy the area, bring a friend, share a room, & save money!

When you book a course at Halsway Manor, we offer you the option of bringing a friend to share your accommodation – and you both get a sharing discount! While you learn, they can explore the area, using Halsway as a base for meals and a good night's sleep. Halsway Manor is in the Quantock Hills National Landscape (formerly AONB). We're just a short drive away from the West Somerset Railway (Britain's longest steam railway), Somerset's Jurassic coast (ideal for fossil hunting), and the Exmoor National Park within easy reach.

Halsway Young Folk

Ignite your passion for music with our immersive, creative and fun residential courses for ages 7 -21! They're led by Becki Driscoll, Archie Churchill-Moss, and Ford Collier, with a great team of professional and nurturing folk musicians alongside Kerrie Seymour to provide pastoral and safeguarding support. In addition to the courses below, we run a Folk Introduction course in the Easter break for young people aged 11-16 who want to dip their toe into folk music.

Halsway Young Folk – Intermediate (12-18 years)

Monday 29 July – Saturday 3 August

Becki Driscoll, Kerrie Seymour, Archie Churchill-Moss, Matt Norman, Rosie Butler-Hall

An intensive week for young musicians to create a brand-new performance piece – and perform it at Sidmouth Folk Week! You'll need to have prior experience as a musician; any instrument is welcome and we'd recommend that you'd be at a playing level of about grade 4 or upwards. It's not necessary to have prior experience of folk music; it's more important that you want to be creative, work collaboratively with others, and have fun creating a performance that everybody can be proud of. NB. Parents will need to transport participants to Sidmouth on Saturday morning.

£265 – apply online

Halsway Young Folk – Advanced (16-21 years)

Monday 19 – Friday 23 August

Archie Churchill-Moss, Kate Griffin, Matt Norman, Kerrie Seymour

The Halsway Young Folk Advanced course aims to challenge and inspire the next generation of professional folk musicians – could this be you?!

Led by Archie Churchill-Moss, you'll work to develop your musical and performance skills. This is the course to do if you aspire to be a professional musician or educator, or are planning to continue your musical education at University.

You'll share some of the week, and the performance, with the Halsway Young Folk Juniors, helping them to gain skills, experience and confidence, and honing your leadership skills along the way.

£260 – apply online

Halsway Young Folk – Junior (7-11 years)

Wednesday 21 – Friday 23 August

Ford Collier, Kate Griffin, Matt Norman, Kerrie Seymour,

A great introduction to folk music and song, filled with fun and imaginative folk activities, using local traditions and customs as inspiration. You'll explore music and song, and create a performance for friends and family. Any instrument, and any level of proficiency welcome. The main thing is that you enjoy music, song and dance, and being creative!

£95 – apply online

Tutors

Becki Driscoll

Becki is a musician, singer, composer and educator, based in the heart of the West Country. She leads educational projects and workshops, and specialist courses, ranging from beginners fiddle sessions to mixed-instrument folk ensembles. She leads the Autumn Fiddle Weekend at Halsway (together with Nick Wyke) and runs RootNotes - a community music company that provides workshops for people of all ages in North Devon.

Archie Churchill-Moss

Widely regarded as one of the best players of English traditional folk, Archie received the coveted BBC

Radio 2 Young Folk Award in 2011. His engaging teaching style comes from a wealth of experience in his position as senior lecturer in 'Folk Music' at Leeds College of Music and teaching on the National Youth Folk Ensemble courses. With a contemporary approach to composition and arrangement, Archie's playing style draws as much influence from the tradition as it does from modern popular music.

Matt Norman

Matt is a performer, teacher, composer, arranger, workshop leader and conductor. He is also a Dartmoor Step Dance Champion, and his work is steeped in the traditions of Devon and Dartmoor. Matt's extensive teaching experience includes working in community and festival settings with all ages and abilities. He has a relaxed, fun and accessible approach to learning, tailored very much to the group. He has a broad expertise embracing mixed instrument ensembles, choral and voice work, instrument specific tuition (mandolin, fiddle, banjo), and, of course, step dancing!

Ford Collier

Ford is a multi-instrumentalist specialising in folk fusion. He plays low whistle, guitar, and percussion, and draws on a wealth of traditional Irish tunes, his years of experience as an accompanist, and knowledge of the rhythmic language of Indian classical music to broaden his roots in UK folk. Some of Ford's first teaching experience came from Halsway Manor, where he originally participated in courses as a teenager! He has since delivered a series of workshops in primary schools on local folklore in collaboration with Historic England and Halsway Manor.

Kate Griffin

Kate is a clawhammer banjo player, singer and composer. Described as "one of the top banjo players in the country" by virtuoso Dan Walsh, her innovative banjo style combines both traditional UK and American folk, whilst also placing the banjo in a contemporary setting. In 2018, Kate formed the award-winning global folk collective Mishra, alongside musical partner Ford Collier. She also performs as part of critically acclaimed transatlantic neo-folk band The Magpies. Kate has taught on our Young Folk courses for a number of years.

Kerrie Seymour

Kerrie is a community artist, youth theatre director and project manager with a background in Social Work, specialising in Youth, Education and Children's Residential care. Working extensively with schools, community groups and a range of support services Kerrie has delivered countless projects from small theatre performances to large scale outdoor events. She strives to be part of creating fresh, innovative, thought provoking and exciting work that can motivate, inspire, and engage participants and audiences. At Halsway she'll be leading fun team-building and confidence-boosting games and creative activities to complement the musical tuition, whilst making sure each young person feels included and supported during their stay.

Christmas Carols and beyond with Narthen

Jo Freya, Fi Fraser, Sarah Matthews, Doug Eunson

The weekend will explore some of the beautiful Yorkshire and Derbyshire carols, both sacred and secular, and other festive fare for which Narthen are so well known. We have a fantastic array of songs for you as always and we are particularly excited about it being a more 'festive celebration', being that little bit nearer to Christmas.

J25: Banding Together Christmas House Party

Banding Together will be at Halsway Manor to celebrate with their Christmas House Party. It's a more relaxed affair than their summer weekend, so expect seasonal repertoire, plus festive fun and games thrown in, too! For more information and booking, please contact Claire Wren at bandingtogetherwithj25@gmail.com.

Mon 9 – Fri 13 Dec

Festive Retreat

Matt Norman, Laurel Swift

Are you looking for an opportunity to take some time away from the December hullabaloo? Then look no further than our Festive Retreat - a chance to sing, make music, craft, relax, walk and generally enjoy the festive surroundings of Halsway Manor decked out for Christmas.

Gaudete! Renaissance Music for the Festive Season

William Lyons, Richard Thomas

Intended for players of renaissance wind, brass and strings, this course, led by members of The City Musick, will celebrate the huge variety of sounds and styles of Christmas music heard during the festive season in renaissance Europe. We can't promise a Boar's Head bedecked with bay and rosemary, but plenty of musical delights will be on offer!

Essential Fiddle Technique Week

Sam Sweeney

This course, looking at essential technique for fiddlers, is designed to address (or readdress!) the fundamentals of violin playing with a view to helping you get more from subsequent fiddle tuition. This in-depth look at the crucial elements of playing is for anyone who would like to build some strong foundations for their ongoing improvement as a fiddler.

A Very Halsway Christmas

The Winter Wonderband, The Rosie Hood Band, Jackie Oates and John Spiers, Gareth Kiddier

Have yourself a Very Halsway Christmas! Come and start your Christmas celebrations at Halsway Manor, where we'll be hosting our very first 'Festive Festival' in the run up to the big day. Your host will be Gareth Kiddier, and joining him over the course of the weekend will be three bands who bring with them a veritable smörgåsbord of talent and a goodly heap of festive sparkle. Each group will be bringing a festive gig to Halsway, one performance on every evening of your stay, as well as leading workshops with guests during the days.

New Year House Party

Bridget Flett, Rod and Francis Stradling, Jane Thomas, Beverley Tapper, Anne and Fritjof Koerber

Celebrate the New Year in style – folk style that is! See out the Old Year and bring in the New with dancing, singing, music and games in the glorious setting of Halsway Manor.

With good food, good music and a packed programme of activities for musicians and dancers, plus with workshops and evening dances. There will be plenty of activities to keep you entertained, or room by the fire to relax with a good book. If the weather is fair, optional walks will be arranged, and you can expect playing sessions too; pack your walking boots and instruments.
